

Kimia MOHAMADI

Country: Iran

Languages: English, Persian (also known as Farsi), Arabic (basic)

Personal Description: I am single 28 yo. I don't smoke and only occasionally drink. I love animals, especially dogs, but not cats. That is I can't live in a house with a pet cat. I am really interested in finding out other countries' traditions, and I enjoy talking about them. Playing with children and taking care of them is something I really like. Among my friends, I am known as a well-presented girl who is highly caring about her hygiene.

Hobbies: time flies when I am out at shopping, or eat at a yum & cosy restaurant. I also like going out to picnic, to watch a movie, or to window shopping.

Favourite Music and Movies: I like pop music. Also I like romantic movies. I may name these movies as my favourites: NOTE BOOK.....

The craziest thing I've done in my life: In my country there are lots of deserts and one time, I travelled there and drove a Jeep on hills, ups and downs. Suddenly, lost the control of my car and I found it upside down. Fortunately, it was not a big issue as I was driving on loose sand.

Things I like: I like having friendly conversation with people, family talks, and playing with babies. I like having my hot drink in a cold day, or swimming in a hot sunny day. I do like travelling around the world, greeting other nations and learning new things, for example, museum is where I never get tired of.

Things I don't like: I don't like getting over-drunk or interacting with someone who is really drunk. In fact, I scare of them. Also I don't feel happy when I see a cat coming toward me.

What I expect from host family: I just expect them to provide me with a neat and tidy bed (preferably with clean white bed linen, and in a separate room), Internet connection and

Life Motto: Live, Love and Laugh
